Vol. 9, No. 38

A SPECIAL ELECTION . . . to fill an opening on the State Universities Civil Service Advisory Committee to the Merit Board will be held Tuesday, July 1, from 9 a.m.-2 p.m. in the Hall of Governors. The term for this position will end December 31, 1984. The names of the following persons will appear on the ballot, listed in the order in which their petitions and statements of candidacy were received: Mary Taylor, Registrar's Office; Dennis Hickey, Physical Plant Operations; and Lucille Poroli, Business Office.

Those employees whose shift assignments prevent voting at the time specified above (and only such employees) may vote on July 1 in the Personnel Office between 7 a.m. and 9 a.m. or between 2 p.m. and 4:30 p.m. Employees who will be on approved leave on July 1 may, by providing proof of inability to vote on the assigned election day, complete an absentee ballot in the Personnel Office. Absentee ballots will be accepted until Monday, June 30, during regular business hours only. If you have questions, contact Betty Elliott or Dorothy Sherman in the Personnel Office.

TAKE A BREAK . . . and celebrate Independence Day. The University will be closed Friday and Saturday, July 4-5. The YMCA at GSU will be closed Friday, July 4, only.

HOFFMAN HERE FRIDAY . . . Nicholas von Hoffman, nationally syndicated columnist and radio-TV commentator, will appear at GSU on the Contemporary Lecture Forum at 8 p.m., Friday, June 27, in the University Theatre. He has authored numerous books on topics including the civil rights movement, the drug scene, college revolt, and national politics.

MOZART FESTIVAL . . . Members of the GSU String Quartet, assisted by guest pianist Fanchon Gelbard Rosen, will close their first season with a Mozart Festival, free to the public, at 4 p.m., Sunday, June 29, in the Music Recital Hall.

YOU ARE INVITED . . . The GSU community is invited to attend an Open House to extend best wishes and farewells to Dick Struthers, Director of Purchasing, Thursday, July 3, 2-4 p.m. in the Business Office. Struthers has accepted a new position in Idaho.

HONORARY DOCTORATES . . . The Commencement Committee is soliciting nominations for recipients of the honorary doctorates for the June, 1981 Commencement. The Honorary Degree Committee will meet early in September to make recommendations to the President. Please send names of nominees to Virginio Piucci, Institutional Research and Planning.
